93rd YEAR

GETTYSBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1911

NO. 52

TEN CHAUTAUQUA DAYS

BEGIN ON FRIDAY EVENING OF THIS WEEK, AUG. 18.

There Will be Speakers with Messages, Entertainers, Musical Attractions and Fun.

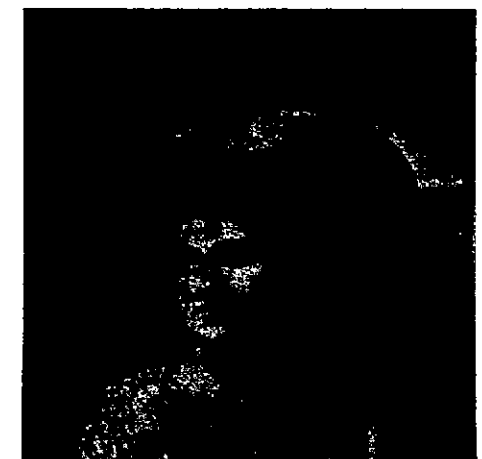

On Friday evening of this week the First Annual Session of the Gettysburg Chautauqua Assembly will convene in the big tent on the high ground just off Baltimore street on East Cemetery Hill. It will be found a delightful and beautiful spot and a cooler place could not be found in the town. It is the hope of everyone that this first chautauqua will be such an unqualified success that it will mean an annual affair and that the Gettysburg Chautauqua will in years to come attract from a distance a distinct patronage of its own.

As the program of the ten days is enjoyed it would be well to keep in mind that to the merchants of Gettysburg this Chautauqua is due. It is not a money making scheme on their part, but without them it would not have been. They have paid for the advertisements and programs which have gone into the homes of the county telling of the prospectus of the Chautauqua and of the plans as they matured. They are making the Chautauqua a free gift to the people of the county by their offer to give a ticket for every purchase of $15 worth of goods, and further when things were in an undecided condition they guaranteed the movement. All this should receive at the hands of all our people but one response, an unqualified endorsement and approval by crowding the tent to its limit at each session.

A. W. Lamar, D. D.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday Dr. A. W. Lamar of Tennessee, will deliver his lectures which are helping to bring the North and South together in a full and complete understanding and his presence at Gettysburg is most appropriate at this time. The lectures he will give are on "Dixie Before and During the War" and "Dixie Since the War." The sermon Sunday morning will be by Dr. Lamar.

Hazel Knox Bornschein

The first concert company attraction will be the Ionic Ladies' Concert Company of Baltimore, composed of Hazel Knox Bornschein, Soprano, Lily Bartholomay 2nd Soprano, Olga von Hartz 1st Alto and Violinist, and Emma I. Kenney 2nd Alto and Contralto Soloist. They will make their first appearance on Sunday and be here on Monday.

Mrs. Mattie Berna Scorer, the bird whistler, will be the opening attraction, and every evening the Gettysburg Citizens' Band will deliver a free concert on the grounds before the regular program is taken up in the main tent.

C. Lawrence Abbott

On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week one of the big attractions will be C. Lawrence Abbott in his impersonations of "Aunt Jane of Kentucky" and "Samantha Allen."

There will be other lecturers, other attractions, other entertainers, another concert company and many other features, for the latter part of next week and in our next issue we will tell about them and let you see who they are.

Be sure to attend every session of the Chautauqua and see for yourself just what it is and the great good it will do you.

Horse and Runabout Stolen.

A fine bay horse was stolen from the barn of John H. Fleming along the York pike near New Oxford on Tuesday night of last week. The horse was a valuable five year old blooded bay animal with white star on forehead. A new rubber tire runabout, set of harness, flynet, lap robe and blanket, the property of W. H. Gross tenant on the place, were stolen at the same time. From amount of hay in rack it is thought theft was committed early in the night and tracks showed team headed toward New Oxford. Diligent search in every direction has yet been obtained as to the horse and the thieves.

Preaching service in Great Conewago Presbyterian Church will be at 10:30 a. m. The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of John Black on Saturday evening, Aug. 19.

There will be two good work horses sold at Mumper's sale on Saturday.

Wholesale Shoe Stealing.

The arrest and hearing of Luther E. Master on charge of larceny of shoes from the Hanover Shoe Factory and of Norman Berkheimer of Berlin Junction, Clayton Berkheimer of Bittling, Solomon Rohrbach and Charles Fuhrman on charge of receiving stolen goods was the sensation of Hanover last week. Master had been engineer at the factory for seven or eight years and confessed that in the past several years he had taken a total of about 300 pairs. A bag containing 18 pairs of "Hanovers" was found at his residence.

At the home of Norman Berkheimer four pairs of "Hanovers" were recovered. Luther Master was his brother-in-law and he confessed to buying the shoes of Master. He showed check book by which he paid $106 to Master. His purchases may have amounted to 75 or 80 pairs at $1.50 a pair.

Witnesses told of purchasing shoes from Berkheimer. They would give him the size and style wanted and in from one to three weeks they received the shoes at price of $1.75 a pair.

In case against Clayton Berkheimer witnesses testified of the buying of shoes from him at $1.75 a pair; supplied after an order of a week or two. They thought they were buying damaged shoes.

Master was held in $2,000 bail for court and the other four in $300.

Excursion to Tolchester.

The Western Maryland Railway Co. announces its annual excursion to Tolchester Beach on the Chesapeake Bay, for Sunday, August 20, and arrangements are being made to make it the biggest and most enjoyable of its kind yet held.

The special trains from all points will be run to Port Covington, the tidewater terminal of the railway at Baltimore and the excursions will have but a few steps to walk to the steamers in waiting. There will be plenty of good music on board and at the beach a grand concert will be given, while a multitude of Coney Island attractions will serve in addition to amuse and entertain the excursionists. Boating, bathing, fishing and crabbing will also attract a great many.

The latter were never better than at this season and large catches are being made daily. The sea food dinners and suppers served at Tolchester are regal repasts at the modest sum of 50 cents. The trip to the beach affords an interesting view of Baltimore's great harbor and shipping, as well as historic Fort McHenry, which inspired "The Star Spangled Banner" and other fortifications as well as the numerous lighthouses etc. The return trip to Baltimore by moonlight is lovely and the entire trip as arranged most thoroughly enjoyable. The round trip fare is only $1.25.

THE FIRST STATE HIGHWAY

FROM GETTYSBURG TO HARRISBURG TAKEN OVER.

The Lincoln Highway Given a Boost by Speaker Champ Clark and Looks Good.

On last Friday, as foretold in a recent issue of the COMPILER, State Highway Commissioner E. M. Bigelow notified the commissioners of Cumberland, York and Adams counties and the authorities of the boroughs and townships through which the old Gettysburg and Harrisburg road passes that he had taken over this highway for the State main highway system. This is the first highway to be taken by the Commonwealth in the 8,000 mile system which is to be created, and is the first to be surveyed as a part of the network of fourteen or fifteen roads that will concentrate in Harrisburg. The Sproul law plans call for numerous roads to meet at Harrisburg so that that city with its new Capitol may be more easily reached.

The Gettysburg road is now being surveyed by engineers under direction of C. W. Hardt, who are running levels preparatory to rebuilding and will afford a fine scenic route between Harrisburg and the battlefield, something that has long been desired by automobilists. This highway passes through Heidersburg and York Springs in this county, Clearspring, Franklinton and Dillsburg in York county, and Williams Grove and Shepherdstown in Cumberland county.

It is said that this road will be pushed quickly toward completion. As soon as the engineers have finished their work bids will be asked and it is expected to have road completed in good time for the 50th anniversary of Battle of Gettysburg in 1913.

The Lincoln memorial highway plan on last Wednesday got a big boost when Speaker Champ Clark formally announced that he favored the plan of this honoring the great war president in preference to the proposed monument to be erected in Washington.

Speaker Clark announced that he was not only in favor of constructing the great highway, but that he favored generally federal aid in the construction of good roads throughout the country. Hon. James T. McCreary after visiting the memorials of the world originated the idea of the Lincoln Way. Representative Lefean of York was the first to introduce a bill providing for the construction of the grand boulevard. This session, Representative Borland, of Missouri, introduced a similar bill and he is now working energetically for its passage at next winter's session of Congress. Mr. Borland advocated his bill at a meeting of the Lincoln Memorial Commission of which the president is a member, at the White House last week. He was accompanied to the White House by a large delegation of members of Congress and others who favor the boulevard plan in preference to that approved by the fine arts commission. The delegation consisted of Representative Lewis of Maryland, Lefean of Pennsylvania, and Farholdt of Missouri, General Thomas S. Hopkins, judge advocate general of the G. A. R., and several representatives of patriotic societies of Washington.

President Taft, as chairman of the Lincoln memorial commission, received the delegation at the White House, and in response to the pleas for the abandonment of the plan recommended by the fine arts commission and the substitution of the Washington to Gettysburg highway, stated that under the law passed by Congress it was not possible for the commission to go outside the city of Washington.

The President made it clear, however, that no recommendation would be made by the Lincoln memorial commission for six months, and that this would give ample time to the advocates of the memorial highway to induce Congress to make a change in the law removing the restrictions on the commission.

Advocates of the memorial highway were jubilant over what they consider a double victory, and as a result of the support received from Speaker Clark it is predicted that the proposed Lincoln Way from Washington to Gettysburg would be accomplished.

Prof. Oscar G. Klinger Resigns.

Prof. Oscar G. Klinger last week sent a letter to Dr. Wm. A. Granville, President of Gettysburg College, resigning the Franklin Professorship of Greek Language and Literature, to take effect June 1, 1912. He assigns as his reason for this step that the duties of the class room have become too severe for his health and he hopes a change of climate will restore his usual vigor. Prof. Klinger has been the Greek professor for a period of fifteen years, having been elected to that position in 1896 and for several years prior to that was principal of the Preparatory Department. Prof. Klinger graduated from Gettysburg in class of 1886 and three years later from the Seminary here and served as pastor of Lutheran Church at Emmisburg before taking up his educational work. Prof. Klinger with his family have been spending the summer at his former home at Sybertsville, Luzerne county, Pa.

Glidden Tour Here in October.

The announcement was made last week that the Glidden automobile tour for 1911 would be to the land of Dixie and will go through Gettysburg. The tour will start from New York on Saturday, October 14, and will be in Gettysburg on Sunday, Oct. 15, and end in Jacksonville Oct. 25, consuming ten running days and covering about 1369 miles. The route will pass through the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida. It passes the battlefields of Gettysburg and Antietam, follows the Shenandoah Valley, passes Natural Bridge of Virginia. The Glidden tour is the greatest thing of its kind in the automobile world and inquiries indicate a large entry list.

Shooting at East Berlin.

East Berlin was the scene of a shooting affray on Monday morning about 11:30 o'clock. Boose is said to have been the cause of the shooting. Curtis Leib runs the warehouse in that place and had employed Paul Chronister. About six weeks ago he discharged Chronister. On Monday morning it is said there was a quarrel between the men over the alleged injustice of the discharge and ended in Chronister, while intoxicated, trying to shoot Leib. The latter knocked the pistol upward and the ball entered the right arm of Leib.

With one arm out of use Leib grabbed a heavy stick of wood and gave Chronister a severe beating, his nose being broken and it was thought he may be internally injured. Friends at this point interfered and prevented any fatal injury to Chronister.

Dr. Lau and Dr. Elgin were summoned and treated the injuries of both men. The bullet was lodged in the muscle of the arm and was not removed. After Chronister's injuries were dressed he was taken to the jail here, the auto conveying him reaching here about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. Chronister is about 32 years old and only when intoxicated is known to be quarrelsome. Mr. Leib is in bed at last reports undergoing medical treatment.

Alleged Ordinance Violation.

Several hackmen had a little tinning with the police before Justice of the Peace Harnish last week. Frank Lott, George Bushman and Wm. Althoff were arrested for a violation of the ordinance providing that no hackman while soliciting passengers shall follow, walk with, or surround any tourist, traveler or visitor and shall stand at the curb line and confine himself to within two feet of curb line. The hearing of Lott and Bushman was held last Friday evening and of Althoff on Saturday. The evidence consisted of a number of people who witnessed the surrounding of a tourist as he left the Reading depot.

After the hearing Squire Harnish fined each defendant $2, and the costs. It is said appeals will be taken and that an arrangement may be made by which one of the cases will be made a test case and other cases abide the result of that case.

Real Estate Sales.

Leo A. Sneeringer, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Edward Shorb, sold at public sale on Tuesday of last week the farm located in Conewago township containing 134 acres and 155 perches to Paul S. Dubs of York county, making a total of $11,478.

Chas. S. Duncan and Mrs. Emma Hafer, executors of W. W. Hafer, deceased, sold at public sale a farm near Thomasville, York county, containing 190 acres and 157 perches to John E. Baker, president of the J. E. Baker Stone Company, for $110 an acre, aggregating $21,000. This is said to be one of the most valuable farms in Paradise township, York county, being underlaid with valuable deposits of limestone.

H. E. Boyd has bought from Henry Osborne his farm of 146 acres at Gulden's Station.

The 175 acre farm of heirs of Peter Wehler, located in Hamilton township was sold at public sale to O. I. M. Houck of Hanover at $49.10 per acre, a total of $8,592.50.

The house and lot fronting on York St., Gettysburg, near bridge, of the late Samuel Little, deceased, was sold at public sale last Saturday to Mrs. Louisa Rinehart of Hunterstown, for $400. The vacant lot adjoining was not sold.

Mrs. Mary D. Hoechst of East Berlin bought the Miss Sheffer home in that town from the executor for $1000.

Michael Rehert of East Berlin sold his small dairy farm of 17 acres in that town to Harry J. March of Reading township for $4000.

John E. Hostetter of Hanover last week bought the Joseph Keagy farm in Conewago township, consisting of 90 acres and 12 perches for $115 per acre.

Athletics Have Good Lead.

The Athletics have a good lead for the pennant. They went up head by a few points ten days ago and have increased this to 26. Eddie Plank is proving the whole show. After winning a game at the beginning of last week he was allowed to take a run up home and Old Adams made him feel so good that upon his return last Saturday he knocked out Boston to tune of 6 to 1. Eddie not only would not allow them to score but two timely singles which he managed when at the bat resulted in bringing in three of the six runs made by the Athletics.

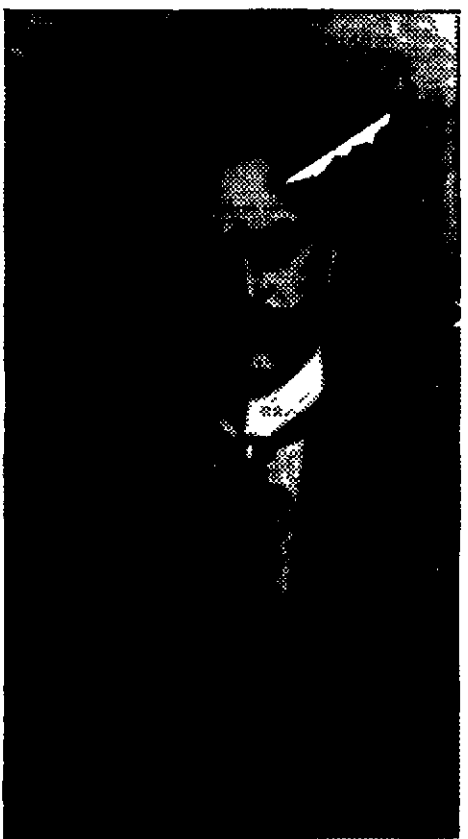

The Millersville Normal School has had nearly 44,000 students in attendance since it opened its doors as the First Pennsylvania State Normal School on April 17, 1855. The school has always held its place as the leading training school for teachers in Pennsylvania, and one of the very few real Normal Schools in the country.

John G. Scorer, Ph.D.

Dr. John G. Scorer, known as the Mirthful Philosopher, has come from Philadelphia to be the Superintendent of this first Gettysburg Chautauqua Assembly and will on Friday evening deliver his eloquent, thoughtful, instructive and inspiring lecture, "The Story of Old Glory."

On Saturday and Sunday Dr. Robt. Forbes, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be one of the attractions with his splendid lectures, "Abraham Lincoln" and "Mistakes of the Devil and Some Other People."

Henry M. Neely

The lecture of Henry M. Neely on "Aeroplanes, How and Why they Fly," next Tuesday evening will unquestionably attract great attention as everyone these days is interested in the human birds and their machines. He is bringing the working models of three aeroplanes, a Blériot monoplane, a Curtis and a Wright biplane and these models will be on exhibition in the store of G. W. Weaver & Son during the ten days of the Chautauqua.

Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, President of Pa. State College, who has been to Gettysburg before and is well known to the teachers of the county, who is a delightful speaker and always has a message will be the lecturer on Thursday evening of next week, his subject being "Simple Virtues."

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

DEMOCRATIC STEWARDSHIP

WHAT THE DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS HAS ACCOMPLISHED

Entitling the Party to the Confidence and Support of the People of the Whole Country.

A complete reformation of the House rules.

Passed the Canadian reciprocity trade agreement.

A bill requiring publicity of campaign funds before elections.

A resolution providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

A resolution authorizing the admission to the Union of Arizona and New Mexico.

The farmers' free list bill.

A wool law which reduces the average ad valorem duty on manufactured wools from 90 per cent. to 42 1-2 per cent.

Preparing a bill that will make a very decided reduction on cotton goods.

The foregoing is condensed statement of House achievements under Democratic control. These particular items are mentioned in a formal announcement from Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, a representative in Congress from Alabama, and the brilliant, accomplished floor leader of democracy in the popular branch of Congress. In addition, the House has carefully attended, with exceptional care and efficiency, to the routine work of Congress. Diligent, also, have been the investigating bodies, and, as we understand it, twelve probing committees are now busily engaged in killing official evils which extend from the Government lands of Alaska to the stockyards of Chicago. No task of minor importance is that.

The extraordinary sessions now drawing to a close has been a Democratic triumph from beginning to end. We have occasion repeatedly to call the attention of the people to the vast contrast existing between this Congress and the Republican Congresses that preceded it. Nothing has occurred in the history of the Democratic party for a quarter of a century which can begin to compare in party value and importance with the work of this extra session of Congress.

The House of Representatives has given the country an idea of what might be looked for under a Democratic administration in all branches of government, and has won the support, confidence and admiration of the country.

This publication takes a great pride in the work of the House of Representatives. We promised much for Mr. Clark and his associates, and his associates, and they have accomplished so much more than we promised or had anticipated that as the session draws to a close it is but fair to say that the best traditions of the Democracy, its noblest purposes and its immense value is exemplified in the House of Representatives of the Sixty-second Congress.

No one can deny the value of the able party leaders who have come rapidly to the front in the various Democratic State administrations throughout the country. The party has now a brilliant array of Presidential possibilities, more seasoned and substantial timber than it has been the good fortune of any party to have available for so important a contest in many years. Democracy has been building up both men and issues. Given the opportunity, its representatives have quickly demonstrated their fitness for high executive and legislative office, so that the party approaches the Presidential year rich in candidates of splendid attainments. We do not take away from these State achievements, however, when we say the party's greatest boon of the present is written in the Congressional Record.

Democracy, in State and Nation, together, formed an indelible document, a record of splendid accomplishment which inevitably will become the slogan of the next campaign.—Democratic National Monthly.

movement has been started at Caldwell, New Jersey, to buy the house in which Grover Cleveland was born and convert it into a memorial of the late President. The house now, as when Mr. Cleveland was born, is the residence of the Presbyterian minister.

The movement has met with some opposition on the ground that Mr. Cleveland regarded Caldwell with dislike and never visited his birthplace after he left it as a boy. The following letter has been made public to those who are interested in the proposed memorial:

Executive Mansion, Albany, Dec. 5, 1884.

Rev. C. T. Berry, Pastor Presbyterian Church, Caldwell, N. J.

Dear Sir: I have your letter informing me that on the 7th of the present month the centennial of the church at Caldwell in which my father once preached will be celebrated.

Though I remember almost nothing of the village where I spent a few early days, I can sincerely say that the spot is dear to me, as the place of his birth should be dear to every man. The name brings to mind scenes in the family circle, when the incidents of Caldwell life were recalled and dwelt upon with pleasure and gratitude. And when I remember that there my sainted parents had their home, and there my godly father wrought and struggled in his Heavenly Father's mission the place seems to me hallowed and sacred.

The Caldwell church, built up and prospered by the labors of such pious and devoted men as have been its pastors, has much in its centennial year to chasten and consecrate its history. In the days to come may it always remain true and steadfast in the work committed to its charge, faithfully teaching the pure doctrine of the Gospel and avoiding all malice and uncharitableness. Yours very truly,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

The people of the borough of Caldwell plan to raise $5,000 toward the memorial. One man has subscribed $500. It is proposed to raise at least $50,000 by national subscription, $25,000 of this to be devoted to the purchase and repair of the property. It is also proposed to acquire land adjoining the Cleveland birthplace for a site for a library which Andrew Carnegie has promised the town.

Gov. Wilson has endorsed the project in the following letter to Leon Carley:

My Dear Mr. Carley:—I learn with great interest that your committee has actually undertaken to raise $50,000 by popular subscription for the purpose of preserving the birthplace of Grover Cleveland in a way which will properly express the esteem with which he is held by the country. I need not tell you that this has my most cordial endorsement.

This opportunity to acquire ownership of the birthplace of Mr. Cleveland will probably not recur in the near future, and it seems to me that the purchase and preservation of the birthplace would be the most interesting and best expression of the veneration in which the memory of the man is held. Mr. Cleveland was a great man and a great President, and I should think that nothing ought to be easier than to raise the amount you are seeking to obtain. Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

Pennsylvania Has Four Canals.

The fact that there are but four canal companies now operating in the State of Pennsylvania, although scores of charters for such companies have been issued in the last 100 years, is disclosed by the mailing of the blanks for the annual reports to the State Bureau of Railways. This bureau is a part of the State Department of Internal Affairs and is in charge of Freeman C. Gerberich. Under the law each company engaged as a common carrier must make a voluminous report to the bureau annually and the blanks just issued are to be returned by August 31.

Chief Gerberich's records show that the State has 465 steam railroads which are required to file reports with the bureau; 510 electric railway lines, 298 telegraph and telephone companies and just four canal companies. The latter number indicates the decline of water transportation in this State. A dozen years ago there were ten companies which made reports of operations on canals, but now the companies are with exception of one, all in the anthracite field. They include the Schuylkill Navigation Company, chartered in 1815, and operating a canal of 89.85 miles from Port Clinton to Philadelphia through the Schuylkill Valley; Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, chartered in 1821 operating from Coalport to Easton, 106 miles; Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal Company, operated by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, lessee, chartered 1858, and running the canal between Easton and Bristol, sixty miles and the Pennsylvania Canal Company, chartered 1866 which operates two and a quarter miles of canal between Juniata Junction and Clark's Ferry, the last of the great waterways, which paralleled the Susquehanna River.

Still in Kansas

There was once a Kansas farmer, And he hearkened to the charmer Who had lands up near the Arctic, Where the walrus loves to be; And as there were lots of takers For his rolling Kansas acres, So he listened to the fakers, And he bargained for a township by a rolling blue print sea!

There were mountains in the distance That were mineralized, for instance, There was water power, and forest, and a lot of lumber dope; With a chance for irrigation, And a central head stream station, On a blue print demonstration— Till the farmer's head was humming Like a circus callopie.

There were trunk lines continental, Traced by red lines, largely mental, With a scrapbook full of clippings That were unsolicited; With a seaport called Cadenzie, At the mouth of the McKenzie, Where the boom was at a frenzy, Since the bonds had just been voted, For the Arctic Limited.

And they told him how alfalfa Wouldn't realize the half a Crop of Eskimoian wild rice that was crossed with Iceland moss; And they showed him how the reindeer Browses in the Arctic moss now, While her ice cream profits somehow Make the average Kansas dairy just a clearing house for loss.

And they guded him on tornadoes, Hot winds, floods and all such daodes, And they ridiculed the proceeds on his hundred dollar land; Just to show they had contrition They throw off their whole commission.

With the single admonition That he bind himself in writing not to breath it, understand.

But the self-same Kansas farmer, Having bought and sold to Armour, And on several occasions having swatted trusts a swat— Likewise Everglades subaqueous, And Tampico flats earthquakeous. And some other blue prints fakeous— You will find him still in Kansas holding on to what he's got!

To Increase the Size of Fruit.

A fruit grower in the northern part of the State has recently written to the Economic Zoologist of the Department of Agriculture requesting to know whether there was any known method by means of which the size of his apples might be increased. Prof. Surface answered by giving the following recommendations:

"To increase the size of apples, I beg to say that there is nothing better than to water the soil abundantly, after having scattered one pound or two of nitrate of soda around the trees, a little farther than the branches extend. If the ground is sloping, it is well to make a bank around the lower side of the tree to hold the water. This should extend over an area nearly as far as the branches reach. If you can find it possible to soak several barrels into the ground at each tree, it will not only stop the dropping of the fruit, but will make it of much larger size.

"Also, the immediate thinning off of all damaged and inferior fruits will make larger and better fruits of those that remain on the trees, and will have a tendency to stop dropping.

"The dry weather has been unusually severe on practically all farm crops, and also on fruits. There never has been a season when good, thorough drainage and cultivation in an orchard has told such a story as this year. Fruits are staying on the trees where cultivated; those not cultivated are falling quite prematurely.

"By thinning one is able to get rid of the pests such as the Codling Moth, Railroad Maggot and Curculio, if he will destroy by promptly feeding to pigs, burning or deeply burying, those which he takes off."

The Tyrannical Husband.

The tyrannical husband may be the truest of lovers, but if he always insists that the compromise shall be on the blue, his wife will shed many tears in secret. This good man seems to think that four walls and a roof are enough of a sphere to satisfy a sensible woman, and he is amazed beyond words if his wife ever desires anything outside them. Should she intimate a wish to go away for a visit of a week or a month, he raises objections without number. Instinctively the masculine mind is quick to see the other side of any question presented, and can scarcely avoid raising objections whenever a new course is proposed. Men do not mean to be wet blankets, yet wet blankets they are in five cases out of six. When the despotic husband wraps the wet blanket of his opposition around the wishes of a docile wife, there is an end of the matter. She will yield her own position rather than have a scene or a fuss.—Woman's Home Companion.

Not Musically Inclined.

Herr Goldmark, the composer, who was said to love the children of his brain with a truly fatherly affection, and never to lose an opportunity of seeing how they were treated, was once traveling to hear a performance of his opera, "The Queen of Sheba," and in the train got into conversation with a lady, in whom he became much interested. He longed to make himself known to his fair companion and at last ventured to say: "I suppose, madam, you do not know who I am?" "No, sir, I do not," replied the lady. "Well, then, I am Carl Goldmark, the composer of 'The Queen of Sheba.' " "Oh, indeed!" was the lady's reply, "and is that a very good situation?"

No Rural Enthusiast.

"So you are tired of the country?" "Yep," answered Farmer Cornotson. "I'm clean dejected about it."

"What is the cause of your dislike?" "I dunno for certain; but I guess it's due to those parrots, an' cross dogs an' phonographs these city boarders bring around every year."

High Words.

"Gracious! Did they fight?" "No. They were aviating at the time. When Jones' airship approached Smith's airship Jones leaned out and asked Smith what o'clock it was."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

What He Lacked.

It is related of a South American general, who was extremely well pleased with himself, that once when about to sail forth to a grand dance he surveyed himself contentedly in the mirror and then soliloquized thus: "Ah! Thou hast all—bravery, wealth, position, good looks. Ah, what dost thou lack?"

Whereupon his orderly, who, unknown to the general, was close at hand, remarked: "Sense, general, sense!"

BOROUGH AND TWP. TICKETS.

Strong borough and township tickets should be nominated in every district. Good representative borough and township tickets will help to get the vote out for the whole ticket and with the full vote out the Democratic ticket is sure to be elected. How to secure good, strong borough and township tickets may be a question. Frequently too little interest is manifest in these minor offices and in order to prevent a failure of having a full ticket at the last minute the county committeemen having been helping to fill out papers. This method is not satisfactory. It has the flavor of a few things instead of the Democratic people of each district. It has resulted often in men refusing to stand whose names were inserted in the papers. The old way of holding a ticket-fixing day for borough and township offices has not been improved upon by the primary law. The new method is better when it comes to county offices out not the minor district offices. When Democrats of a borough or township gather together to fix a ticket the candidates chosen feel the public character of the meeting and stand and make a contest for the offices for which they have been nominated.

County Chairman S. Miley Miller at the last meeting of the county committee proposed a plan combining a public ticket fixing meeting with the new primary law. It is a most admirable plan and is heartily endorsed by the Compiler and should be followed by Democrats in every district. It is a plan by which it will be possible to obtain good candidates for the offices who will make active canvass for nomination and election. The plan is explained in a letter which Mr. Miller has sent to every Democratic committeeman in the county and many other Democrats, as follows:

"At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee on June 10th, last, you recall if you were present, that the matter of nomination for township and borough officers was discussed, and it was recommended and endorsed by the committee, that in order to have petitions filed for all the township and borough offices so that there will be a full Democratic Primary ticket in each township and borough, in the county, that the Committeemen of each township and borough, fix a time and place in their district and notify the Democrats by posters to meet to select men, and fill out and sign, the petitions for the candidates for township and borough offices to be nominated at the primary election to be held on Saturday, September 30, 1911.

"To comply with this recommendation I herewith enclose blank notices and ask that the committee of each township and borough fill in the date and place for such meetings, also some blank petitions as you may not have enough owing to the five school directors to be nominated, of which two are for two years, two for four years and one for six years, and the time must be mentioned on the petition for which school directors are to be elected.

"I am mailing the notices and petitions to the first named committeeman on the list of each district.

"As chairman I ask the committee to act promptly in this matter in each township and borough so that the petitions will be filed not later than Saturday, September 9, which is the last day for filing petitions.

"This will give all the Democrats an opportunity to help in the selection of candidates for their district and this is 'Government by the People.' Remember this does not interfere with petitions already filed, or such as may wish to file after the meeting, as the matter of filing petitions is free and open for all.

"Trusting that as committeemen you will take this matter up promptly and that it will be satisfactory to all concerned.

Very truly yours,
S. MILEY MILLER,
Chairman."

DEATH'S CRUEL HARVEST

William Bowman, died at her home in Hanover on Tuesday, Aug. 8, after an illness of about three months with cancer of the pancreas, aged 60 years, 2 months and 13 days. She was a daughter of Peter and Catharine Wolf, late of near Littlestown. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Minnie Cora Bowman, at home. Also two step-sons, Harry M. and George G. Bowman, residing in Hanover, one brother, Alexander Wolf of York, and two sisters, Mrs. John Knupp of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Amos Willet of Kingsdale, this county. Mrs. Bowman was a faithful and devoted member of Trinity Reformed Church and Sunday School, always taking an interest in her religious work. The funeral was held on last Friday, services by her pastor, Rev. M. J. Roth, interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bream of Hamilton township was buried in the Union cemetery at Fairfield on Tuesday morning of last week.

CLINTON FRANKLIN FLECK died at his home near Fayetteville on last Wednesday, Aug. 9, aged 43 years, 4 months and 11 days. He was a son of the late David and Mary Fleck of Franklin county and was held in the highest esteem by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a member of the Lutheran Church of Fayetteville. The interment was at Marion, Franklin county. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Franklin Dunmire and Mrs. Russel Coldsmith, both of Scotland, and had a number of relatives in this county in neighborhood of Biglerville.

GEORGE WM. THOMAS died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Walters, near Biglerville, on Monday morning, aged about 70 years. He was a son of Martin Thomas and lived for many years on the home farm several miles north of town. Several years ago he removed to his daughter's making his home there. About a week ago he had a paralytic stroke. The funeral will be held this Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with interment at Bender's Church Cemetery. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lettie Walters.

Western Drama Draws Crowd.

The western drama, "Titania Timberlake," which Miss Dora Debo Whalen and a local company produced in Xavier Hall last Thursday evening, was an artistic and financial success. The actors were all well in their lines and showed every evidence of hard, careful rehearsal. Miss Whalen gave a finished interpretation of the boy-dish heroine. She was perfect in the part, bringing out the chameleon moods of the wild "Titania," making her a lovable little vixen, rough and uneducated but not coarse. Miss Whalen is a very attractive woman with a magnetic personality. She took the eye of the audience on her first entrance, and held it till the last curtain fell. Wallace Emmons made a manly, appealing hero. His was the most difficult role in the play, and he was surprisingly successful. Chas. Swisher and Miss Rose Stock proved themselves a pair of funmakers ready for the vaudeville comedy stage whenever they choose to go. Their love scene was a treat. Chas. Kimple appeared to great advantage as the man with the past ill appearance and bearing were good. Frank Sionaker and James Stock made ferocious villains, the kind one wouldn't care to meet in a dark corner. They delivered their lines with snap and distinctness. The McSherrys, Alban and Miss Anna, were a good couple. She was a delight to the eye and he a delight to the risibilities. Both were well cast, and made their presence felt. Chas. Stock showed his versatility by playing two roles, both very different. He looked fine as "Kent," but his best acting was done as the doughty sheriff. Russell Frazier, Maurice Bushman, Edward Thomas and Clarence Breighner were the dashing cowboys, and made an appeal to feminine hearts. The vaudeville introduced was excellent. The Misses Ramer were worthy of Keith's. They got the "glad hand," and they deserved it. Chas. Stock sang a classic selection in his usual good voice. Miss Rose Stock's love ditty suggested May Irwin, the clever comedienne. Wallace Emmons as "Mlle. Liane de Pougy," went through some mighty funny paces. His costume and make-up as the Merry Widow were rich.

The only blemish and drawback in the performance were the babies who attended, clasped in the arms of proud Mamas. It was decidedly jarring in the midst of a creepy, tense scene to hear an infantile wail from the darkened auditorium. Good advice would be: Mothers, when you bring your babies to the theatre, leave 'em at home.

SPECTATOR.Entrance Examination.

The examination for non-resident pupils who are making application for entrance to the borough high schools of the county will be held in the High School building, Gettysburg, Saturday, August 26, at 8 o'clock a. m.

Pupils who hold the common school diploma are admitted to high schools without further examination.

H. MILTON ROTH, County Supt.

Two Hotels Change Proprietors.

Last week two of the Gettysburg hotels changed proprietors. Chas. B. Tate purchased the Washington House with contents from Chas. W. Straubach for $14,500 and took possession last Thursday. The hotel will undergo repairs of papering and painting.

Charles Schlegel last week bought the goodwill and furniture of Globe Hotel from John Fagan, the former proprietor. Mr. Schlegel comes here from Shamokin where he has been engaged in hotel keeping and says he is going to make a better hotel of the Globe.

RUNK & PECKMAN'S REALTY REPORT

This is an age of experts in which the inexperienced is at a great disadvantage. If you require medical attention you should have the best doctor. If an operation is necessary to prolong life you should have the most skillful surgeon to use the knife. If you have a case at law you should have a lawyer, not a pettifogger.

If you employ someone to sell your property he should be a practical salesman, one thoroughly posted in values. It does not matter how much money he makes because he knows how to close deals, he should be both financially and morally responsible for your money which he handles. When you buy you want a good deed and a clear title. The guarantee of a responsible real estate dealer is worth something. In the future if you conclude that you better re-sell because you are unable to make the required payments, you should have a dealer who can and will help you in times of need. The dealer who makes a success for himself will make a success for you.

PENN'A FARM CENSUS DATA

DOMESTIC ANIMALS, POULTRY AND BEES IN THE STATE

Interesting Figures of the Farm Products of the Keystone State.

Statistics relative to the domestic animals, poultry, and bees reported on farms and ranges for the State of Pennsylvania at the Thirteenth Decennial Census April 15, 1910, are contained in an official statement issued to-day by Acting Director Falkner. It is based on tabular summaries prepared under the direction of Dr. Le Grand Powers, chief statistician for agriculture in the Bureau of the Census. The figures are preliminary and subject to slight revision later, when a few other farms, whose returns, now incomplete, are included in the final tables. It is not expected that these additions will materially modify the amounts or rates stated herein. Special attention is called to the fact that the present statement relates only to live stock on farms and ranges and does not give the figures for the cities and towns of the State.

The aggregate value of all domestic animals, poultry, and bees, as reported in 1910, was about $141,371,000, as compared with $102,439,000 in 1900, the amount of increase being $38,932,000 and the rate 38 per cent.

The total value of the domestic animals was reported at $133,219,000 in 1910, as against $97,424,000 in 1900, the increase amounting to $35,795,000, or 36.7 per cent.

The poultry were valued at $7,674,000 in 1910, as compared with $4,433,000 in 1900; the gain being $3,241,000, or 73.2 per cent.

The bees were valued at $487,000 in 1910, and $532,000 in 1900; a decrease of $45,000, or 10 per cent.

Horses and colts had a greater value than any other class of domestic animals in 1910, whereas cattle had the greater value in 1900. The total value of horses and colts in 1910 was $67,987,000, while in 1900 it was $40,949,000, an increase of 66 per cent. The total value of cattle in 1910 was $47,202,000, as compared with $43,063,000 in 1900, an increase of 9.6 per cent. Next in order in 1910 were swine, with a total value of $7,620,000, as compared with $5,830,000 in 1900; an increase amounting to 30.7 per cent. The total value of mules and mule colts in 1910 was $6,418,000, while in 1900 it was $2,908,000; an increase of 120.7 per cent. Sheep and lambs in 1910 were valued at $3,933,000, as compared with $4,643,000 in 1900. This was the only decrease in any class of domestic animals and amounted to 15.3 per cent. Asses and burros in 1910 were reported as valued at $43,000, as against $22,600 in 1900; the increase amounting to 92.5 per cent. Goats and kids in 1910 were valued at $15,700, as compared with $9,000 in 1900; an increase of 75.9 per cent.

Horses and mules in 1910 constituted 52.6 per cent of the value of all live stock; cattle, 33.4 per cent; swine, 5.4 per cent; poultry, 5.4 per cent; sheep and lambs, 2.8 per cent; bees, 0.2 per cent; and asses and burros and goats and kids, each less than one-tenth of 1 per cent.

The total number of farms in the State in 1910 was 218,394. Of these, 94.8 per cent, or 206,975, reported domestic animals; 88.3 per cent, or 192,772, reported cattle; 84.3 per cent, or 184,024, reported horses and colts; 65.3 per cent, or 142,563, reported swine; 11.6 per cent, or 25,426, reported sheep or lambs; and 8.2 per cent, or 17,875, reported mules or mule colts. Only 0.4 per cent, or 943, reported goats or kids, and 0.1 per cent, or 209, reported asses or burros.

The total number of cattle reported in 1910 was 1,585,570. Of these, 933,055 were dairy cows, the total value of which was $36,084,000, and the average value, $38.67. The number of farms reporting dairy cows was 191,001, or 37.5 per cent of the total number of farms in the State. On the other hand, cows not kept for dairy purposes numbered 99,165, and their average value was $23.03. These cows were reported by 41,967 farms, or 19.2 per cent of the total number of farms in the State. The average number of dairy cows per farm reporting was 5, while the average number of cows not kept for milk, per farm reporting that class was slightly over 2. Yearling heifers—that is, heifers born during the year 1909—numbered 167,583; average value, $15.20. Mature steers and bulls, born before 1909, were 73,473 in number; average value $44.89. Yearling steers and bulls, born in 1909, numbered 76,752; average value $17.16. The total number of spring calves born in 1910 was 235,542, and the average value $7.10. It may be noted that the census of 1900 showed a larger number of calves, namely, 421,323. This difference is due to the fact that the census of 1900 was taken as of date June 1, after all the spring calves were born and the group "Calves" included all cattle less than 1 year of age, so that the number and average of calves were greater than in 1910, when the census was taken on April 15, and only "Calves born in 1910" were included in the comparative group.

The total number of horses and colts reported in 1910 was 549,168. Of these 511,254 were classed by the census as mature horses—that is, horses born before 1909—and their value was $65,557,000, and average value $128.23. Yearling colts, which were colts born in 1909, numbered 30,959, and their average value was $70. Spring colts, born in 1910, were 6,955 in number, and their average value was reported as $35.86. It may be noted that only 2.8 per cent of the farms of the State reported colts born in 1910.

The total number of swine in 1910 was 977,050, of which 64 per cent, or 625,140, were classed as "Hogs born before 1910." The total value of these was $6,292,000, and the average value $10.23. The spring pigs, born in 1910, numbered 351,910, and their average value was reported as $3.49.

The total number of mules of all ages in 1910 was 44,284, which is 8.1 per cent of the number of horses and colts. Of these adult mules born before 1909 numbered 42,884, and their average value was $146.99. Only 1,277 mule colts born in 1909 were reported, having an average value of $85.87, and spring colts, with an average value of $42.20. There were 347 asses and burros reported, with a total value of $4,400, and their average value was $12.55.

The total number of sheep and lambs reported for 1910 was 428,552. Of these 473,192 were mature ewes born before 1910 and their total value was $2,553,000, or an average of $5.39. This total value was nearly two thirds of the total value of all sheep and lambs. Rams and wethers numbered 164,176, and the average value was $4.96. Spring lambs were 245,483 in number, and their average value was given as $2.30. The number of spring lambs was 51.9 per cent of the number of ewes. There were 3,555 goats and kids reported, having an average value of $4.45.

The summary of poultry shows that the total number of farms reporting the different kinds in 1910 was 205,155, the total number of fowls being 127,283,43, and the total value $7,647,000.

Of the total number of farms reporting poultry, 205,158, nearly all, or 205,026, reported chickens, numbering 11,895,903, valued at $7,020,000; 40,126 reported turkeys, numbering 136,942, valued at $313,000; 23,502 reported ducks, numbering 163,777, valued at $114,000; 13,300 reported geese, numbering 46,318, valued at $66,500; 24,025 reported guinea fowls, numbering 111,715, valued at $48,200; 6,161 reported pigeons numbering 373,304, valued at $111,000. There were also report of pheasants valued at $630; peafowls, $504; wild geese $15, and swans $10.

Of the whole number of the farms in the State, those returning chickens formed 93.9 per cent; turkeys 18.4 per cent; guinea fowls 11 per cent; ducks 10.8 per cent; geese 6.1 per cent; pigeons 2.8 per cent; and all others less than one tenth of 1 per cent. The reported increase in the value of poultry on Pennsylvania farms in the 10 years, 1900 to 1910, was 71.2 per cent; the increase in the total number of fowls, 15.2 per cent. The number of farms reporting poultry decreased 4,539, and the number of fowls per farm reporting increased from 55 to 62.

The number of farms reporting bees decreased from 28,962 in 1900 to 22,297 in 1910, or 23 per cent. The colonies of bees on hand in 1910 showed a decrease from 161,670 in 1900 to 124,830, or 22.8 per cent, and at the same time the value decreased from $532,000 to $478,000, or 10 per cent.

A smaller relative decrease is found in the value of bees than in the number of farms reporting and the number of colonies. About 10 farms in each 100 reported bees in 1910, while in 1900 they were reported by about 15 farms in each 100.

ARENDTSTVILLE.

Notwithstanding the rain last Friday evening the railroad meeting held in the town hall in the interest of the proposed road from Biglerville to Cashtown via Arendtville, was fairly well attended. Mr. Hamilton, the president of the proposed road, gave a very satisfactory statement of the cost and location of the road, and now the citizens along the line are beginning to figure how much they can subscribe to it. They are well aware if they lose this opportunity that they may have to wait many years before they get another opportunity for a railroad.

THE SCOUTS MOVEMENT

Squire Hammers Tells His Views of the Movement

Since this locality has had a camp of Boy Scouts we have had many inquiries as to this movement. What was to be the outcome of it? This movement is not one of religion. It is a movement of the worldly kingdom. The movement started over in Great Britain and has been imported to America, and is rapidly spreading through every city and village. It is to teach the sons of labor the art of war. Now the greatest crime against the New Testament religion is that of war. It has been the greatest crime of all ages, has been and is the monumental crime whose burdens have fallen upon the men of the working class, but more upon the woman whose blood has mingled with the blood of the millions of victims that have stained the earth for countless centuries.

Now dear reader just think of it. Those calling themselves ministers of Christ, and pretended teachers of His Word, at the head of this worldly and ungodly movement. Christ did admit and teach that war and violence in defense of His religion was wrong. Now since Christ and the apostles set the example of suffering ignominy and death at the hands of His enemies for the sake of truth. Jesus taught His disciples that when they were persecuted in one city they should flee into another, for He sent them forth as sheep in the midst of wolves. As sheep have no means of defense, and their only safety is in flight, so our Saviour uses them to represent the defenseless and passive principle of His kingdom. It is an accepted fact even by some of the greatest infidels that war in defense of religion is anti-Christian. Now we inquire by what scriptural authority may Christians contend for an earthly and perishable kingdom.

Now we close our remarks with a few words to those ministers who are at the head of the Boy Scouts. I am taught by Christ and His words that His ministers that are in His kingdom are conscious ministers. They are led by His spirit, and have the mind of Christ. They love what He loves, and hate what He hates. Christ loved faith, purity, humility, unselfishness, and non-worldliness. "My kingdom is not of this world, if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews." If we have any sense we must conclude that if every religion were the Christ kind, there would be but only one kingdom upon earth and war would be unknown.

ANSWERS EVERY CALL.

Gettysburg People Have Found That This is True.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench. A little cause may hurt the kidneys. Spells of backache often follow. Or some irregularity of the urine. A certain remedy for such attacks. Is medicine that answers every call. Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a true specific.

Many Gettysburg people rely on it. Here is Gettysburg proof.

Mrs. Charles Gilbert, 128 W. Middle street, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "My health was very poor as the result of disordered kidneys. I had but little appetite, could not sleep well and was subject to backache and headaches. Often I had dizzy spells and chills and I always felt worse when I caught cold. One of my relatives finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at the People's Drug Store. They proved to be all that was claimed for them, giving me prompt and permanent relief. I advise the use of this remedy in all cases of kidney complaint."

ALL the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is a wonderful remedy for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflammation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obsolete old cases have yielded in a few weeks. All druggists, 75c. Without Fear of Successful Contradiction We Claim for the

is Better than all Others for these very Pertinent Reasons:

Most Comfortable bed ever slept on—soft, yielding, but springy and resilient—never packs or gets lumpy, or loses its feeling of newness. That is because it is made of Ostermoor sheets; built, not stuffed. We have scores of letters from doctors and competent judges who declare it the only

Absolutely sanitary mattress because dust cannot work into it; no vermin can harbor in it; a sun-bath is all the renovating it ever needs; it will not absorb dampness, disease germs, or any poison from perspiration or the atmosphere. It is always

Perfectly Dry because non-absorbent. If the ticking is dry, the mattress is dry. No taking cold from it, no unpleasant or musty odor about it; always fresh and sweet. Testimonials in our free book bear witness for those who have used it for thirty years or more and who do not hesitate to say that it Lasts a Life-time and stays in perfect condition. It never needs remaking or renovating. You may remove and clean the tick as often as you like.

No other mattress in the world, of any material, at any price, from any maker or through any dealer, can truthfully make and prove all the claims as can the Ostermoor. Do not take our word for it—our word is good—but if you will
